PART IV

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

DISASTER UNEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Final Regulations.
Title 20—Employees’ Benefits
CHAPTER V—EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ADMINISTRATION
PART 625—DISASTER UNEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE
Final Regulations
AGENCY: Employment and Training Administration, Labor.
ACTION: Final rule.
SUMMARY: These are the Department of Labor's final regulations for implementing the Disaster Unemployment Assistance Program. The regulations provide assistance to people unemployed because of a major disaster. The final regulations incorporate the substantive changes and improvements as set forth in the published proposal, except that in the final form the formula for calculating the weekly amount payable to individuals has been modified.
FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Disaster Unemployment Assistance Program is created by section 407(a) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5177(a)), to provide weekly payments of assistance to individuals whose unemployment is caused by a major disaster declared by the President in accordance with the Act.
Part 625, Chapter V, Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations, implements the Disaster Unemployment Assistance Program as most recently amended in the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, (Pub. L. 93-388, 88 Stat. 496). An interim revision of the regulations was published in the Federal Register on October 11, 1974, 39 FR 36,927, and a complete revision of the regulations through November 11, 1974. The proposal to revise the regulations in final form was published in the Federal Register on November 9, 1974 (41 FR 49,907), and this document contains the final regulations for Part 625.
Comments on the proposal published on November 9, 1974, were solicited through December 9, 1976, and the proposal was further reviewed in the Department. As a result of comments and review, a few changes have been made in the proposal.
1. The only comment suggesting any change in Part 625 was received from the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The DAAA suggested that § 625.5(b)(4), which defines unemployment for a self-employed individual injured due to a major disaster, conform with § 625.5(a)(5), which defines the same condition as pertaining to an unemployed worker. The suggestion has been adopted, and the words "or illness" are deleted from § 625.5(b)(4).
2. Further review of the proposed Part 625 revealed that under § 625.6 there is no provision for computing the DUA weekly amount to be paid to unemployed self-employed individuals who had no net earnings due to their self-employment or operating a loss. A new paragraph, designated as paragraph (3), has been added to provide that such individuals be paid a DUA weekly amount equal to the minimum weekly benefit amount payable for regular unemployment compensation under the applicable State law. Paragraph (3) of this section has now been redesignated paragraph (4).
3. The general rule for calculating the DUA weekly amount also has been reviewed further, and the rule is modified. As set out in § 625.6(a)(1) of the proposal, the DUA weekly amount would be computed under the applicable State law in the same manner as the weekly benefit amount for regular unemployment compensation purposes. This basic formula is retained in the final regulations, but if the resulting DUA weekly amount is less than the average weekly UI payment in the State, then a weekly amount would be computed based on the individual's average weekly earnings for the 13-week period preceding the disaster, and the higher of these two amounts would be the DUA weekly amount for the individual.
4. In addition a number of minor proofing and technical errors were made in the proposed document as published in the Federal Register on November 9, 1974 (41 FR 49,907). Those errors have been corrected in this document.

The Department of Labor has determined that this document does not contain a major proposal requiring the preparation of an Economic Impact Statement under Executive Order 11949 and applicable authority.

This document was prepared under the direction of Lawrence E. Weatherford, Jr., Administrator, Unemployment Insurance Service, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 601 D Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20213, Telephone: 202-376-7032.

Accordingly, Part 625 of Chapter V of title 20, Code of Federal Regulations, is revised as set out below.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on September 16, 1977.

ERNEST G. GREEN,
Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training.

Arr[(u)]: Secs. 303(a) and 601 of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, Pub. L. 93-388, 88 Stat. 389, 149, 149, 149, 149, 149; EO 11765, 39 FR 25909, and the delegation of authority from the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development to the Secretary of Labor, effective August 6, 1974, 39 FR 36,920, Interpret or apply sec. 407 of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, 88 Stat. 149, 149, 149, 149; 149; 149; 149 (42 U.S.C. 6177).

§ 625.1 Purpose; rules of construction.
(a) Purpose. Section 407 of the "Disaster Relief Act of 1974" created a program for the payment of unemployment assistance to unemployed individuals whose unemployment is caused by a major disaster, and to provide employment services to those individuals. The unemployment assistance provided for in section 407 of the Act is hereinafter referred to as Disaster Unemployment Assistance, or DUA. The regulations in this Part are designed to implement section 407 of the Act.
(b) First rule of construction. Section 407 of the Act and the implementing regulations in this part shall be construed liberally so as to carry out the purposes of the Act.
(c) Second rule of construction. Section 407 of the Act and the implementing regulations in this Part shall be construed so as to assure insofar as possible the uniform interpretation and application of the Act throughout the United States.
(d) Effectuating purpose and rules of construction. (1) In order to effectuate the provisions of this section, each State agency shall forward to the United States Department of Labor, on receipt of a request from the Department, a copy of any determination or redetermination ruling on an individual's entitlement to DUA.
(2) If the Department believes a determination or redetermination is inconsistent with the Secretary's interpretation of the Act, the Department may at any time notify the appropriate agency of the Department's view. Thereafter, the State agency shall appeal if possible, and shall not follow such determination or redetermination as a precedent, and in any subsequent proceedings which involve such determination or redetermination, or wherein such determination or redetermination is either presented or otherwise relied upon, the State agency shall inform the hearing officer of the Department's view and shall make all reasonable efforts to obtain modification, limitation, or overruling of the determination or redetermination.

(3) A State agency may request reconsideration of a determination that a determination or redetermination is inconsistent with the Act, and shall be given an opportunity to present views and arguments in support of its position. Provided, however, that a determination setting a precedent becomes final, which the Department believes to be inconsistent with the Act, the Secretary will decide whether the Agreement with the State shall be terminated.

(4) Concurrence of the Department in a determination or redetermination shall not be presumed from the absence of a notice issued pursuant to this paragraph.

§ 625.3 Definitions.

For the purposes of the Act and this part:

(b) "Agreement" means the Agreement entered into pursuant to the Act, between a State and the Secretary of Labor of the United States under which the State agency of the State agrees to make payments of Disaster Unemployment Assistance in accordance with the Act and the regulations and procedures thereunder prescribed by the Secretary.

(c) "Announcement date" means the first day on which the State agency publicly announces the availability of Disaster Unemployment Assistance in the State, pursuant to §625.17.

(d) (1) "Compensation" means unemployment compensation; that is, cash benefits including dependents' allowances; payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment, and includes regular, additional, extended, and emergency compensation as defined in this section; and unemployment compensation payable under the Hawaii Agricultural Unemployment Compensation Law and the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act.

(2) "Regular compensation" means compensation payable to an individual under any State law or the unemployment compensation plan of a political subdivision of a State and, when so payable, includes compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85 (Parts 609 and 614 of this chapter), but not including extended compensation or additional compensation.

(3) "Additional compensation" means compensation totally financed by a State and payable pursuant to a law based on conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors, and, when so payable, includes compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85.

(4) "Extended compensation" means compensation payable to an individual for weeks of unemployment in an extended benefit period, under those provisions of a law which satisfy the requirements of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970 (title II, Pub. L. 91-373; 84 Stat. 695, 708; Part 615 of this chapter), as amended, with respect to the payment of extended compensation, and, when so payable, includes extended compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85.

(g) "Disability Insurance" means the unemployment compensation payable to an individual during a period of disability following a period of unemployment, which period of disability which begins prior to one year subsequent to the date the major disaster was declared, or, if earlier, the date the Federal Coordinating Officer, after consultation with the appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, has determined that unemployment in the major disaster area is no longer attributable to the major disaster.

(h) "Disability Insurance" means the unemployment compensation payable under the Hawaii Agricultural Unemployment Compensation Law and the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act.

(i) "Disaster Assistance Period" means the period beginning with the first week following the date the major disaster began, and extends through the first week which begins prior to one year subsequent to the date the major disaster was declared, or, if earlier, the date the Federal Coordinating Officer, after consultation with the appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, has determined that unemployment in the major disaster area is no longer attributable to the major disaster.

(j) "Disaster Unemployment Assistance" means the assistance payable to an individual for assistance under the Act and this part, and which is referred to as DUA.

(k) "Federal Coordinating Officer" means the official appointed pursuant to section 303 of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, to coordinate the activities of the appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, and to give notice of the disaster to the President.

(l) "Governing body" means the chief executive of a State.

(m) "Initial application" means the first application for DUA filed by an individual, on the basis of which the individual's eligibility for DUA is determined.

(n) "Major disaster" means a major disaster as declared by the President pursuant to section 301(b) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974.

(p) "Major disaster area" means the area identified as eligible for Federal assistance by the Federal Coordinating Officer, pursuant to a Presidential declaration of a major disaster.

(q) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Labor of the United States.

(r) "Self-employed individual" means an individual whose primary reliance for income is on the performance of services for hire in a trade or business of which the individual is the owner, or on the individual's own farm.

(s) "Self-employment" means services performed as a self-employed individual.
unemployment during which the individual has odd jobs or subsidiary work and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed in the applicable State law. A week of partial unemployment is a week during which the individual works less than regular, full-time hours for the individual's regular employer, as a direct result of the disaster, and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed by the applicable State law.

(2) For an unemployed self-employed individual, any week during which the individual is totally, part-totally, or partially unemployed. A week of total unemployment is a week during which the individual performs no services in self-employment or in an employer-employee relationship, or performs services less than full-time and earns wages not exceeding the minimum earnings allowance prescribed in the applicable State law. A week of part-totally unemployment is a week of otherwise total unemployment during which the individual has odd jobs or subsidiary work and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed by the applicable State law. A week of partial unemployment is a week during which the individual performs less than the customary full-time services in self-employment, as a direct result of the major disaster, and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed by the applicable State law, or during which the only activities or services performed are for the sole purpose of enabling the individual to resume self-employment.

(3) If the week of unemployment for which an individual claims DUA is a week with respect to which the individual is reemployed in a suitable position or has commenced services in self-employment, that week shall be treated as a week of partial unemployment if the week qualifies as a week of partial unemployment as defined in this paragraph.

§ 625.3 Employment services.

Individuals applying for DUA and all other individuals who are unemployed because of a major disaster shall be afforded employment services, including counseling, refresher training, and suitable job opportunities, and suitable training, to assist them in obtaining reemployment in suitable positions as soon as possible.

§ 625.4 Eligibility requirements for Disaster Unemployment Assistance.

An individual shall be eligible to receive a payment with respect to a week of unemployment, in accordance with the provisions of the Act and this part, if:

(a) That week begins during a Disaster Assistance Period;

(b) The applicable State for the individual has entered into an Agreement which is in effect with respect to that week;

(c) The individual is an unemployed worker or an unemployed self-employed individual;

(d) The individual's unemployment with respect to that week is caused by a major disaster, as provided in § 625.5.

(e) The individual has filed a timely initial claim for DUA and, as appropriate, a timely application for a payment of DUA with respect to that week;

(f) That week is a week of unemployment for the individual;

(g) The individual is able to work and available for work within the meaning of the applicable State law: Provided, that an individual who is deemed to meet this requirement if any injury caused by the major disaster is the reason for inability to work or engage in self-employment; or, in the case of an unemployed self-employed individual, the individual performs self-employment or activities which are solely for the purpose of enabling the individual to resume self-employment;

(h) The individual has not refused a bona fide offer of employment in a suitable position, or refused without good cause to resume or commence suitable self-employment or self-employment could have been undertaken in that week or in any prior week in the Disaster Assistance Period.

§ 625.5 Unemployment caused by a major disaster.

(a) Unemployed worker. The unemployment of an unemployed worker is caused by a major disaster if:

(1) The individual no longer has a job as a direct result of the major disaster;

(2) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment as a direct result of the major disaster;

(3) The individual was to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the major disaster; or

(4) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the head of the household has died as a direct result of the major disaster.

(b) Unemployed self-employed individual. The unemployment of a self-employed individual is caused by a major disaster if—

(1) The individual no longer can perform any regular services as a self-employed individual as a direct result of the major disaster;

(2) The individual is unable to reach the place where services as a self-employed individual were to be performed, as a direct result of the major disaster;

(3) The individual was to commence regular services as a self-employed individual, but does not have a place or is unable to reach the place where the services as a self-employed individual were to be performed, as a direct result of the major disaster; or

cent of the individual's average weekly earnings as calculated under those paragraphs, and if the application of this limitation would result in a weekly amount less than the maximum weekly amount of regular compensation payable under the applicable State law the individual shall be ineligible for DUA.

(b) Canal Zone and Guam. In the Canal Zone, the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands for weeks of total unemployment the maximum amount of DUA payable to an unemployed worker or unemployed self-employed individual for a week of total unemployment shall be the average of the payments of regular compensation made by all States (except the Canal Zone, the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands) for weeks of total unemployment immediately preceding the quarter in which the major disaster began. The weekly amount so determined, if not an even dollar amount, shall be rounded to the next higher dollar.

(c) American Samoa and Trust Territory. In American Samoa and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands the amount of DUA payable to an unemployed worker or unemployed self-employed individual for a week of total unemployment shall be the amount agreed upon by the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, for Region IX (San Francisco), and the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, which shall approximate 50 percent of the area-wide average of the weekly wages paid to individuals in the major disaster area in the quarter immediately preceding the quarter in which the major disaster began. The weekly amount so determined, if not an even dollar amount, shall be rounded to the next higher dollar.

(d) Partial and part-total unemployment. The weekly amount of DUA payable to an unemployed worker or unemployed self-employed individual for a week of partial or part-total unemployment shall be the weekly amount determined under paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section minus $10.00 (but not below zero) by the amount of wages that the individual earned in that week as determined by applying to such wages the earnings allowance for partial or part-total unemployment prescribed by the applicable State law.

§ 625.7 Disaster Unemployment Assistance—duration.
DUA shall be payable to an eligible unemployed worker or eligible unemployed self-employed individual for weeks of unemployment which begin during a Disaster Assistance Period.

§ 625.8 Applications for Disaster Unemployment Assistance.

(a) Initial application. An initial application for DUA shall be filed by an individual with the State agency of the applicant State as soon as possible after the announcement date of the major disaster as the result of which the individual became unemployed, and on a form prescribed by the Secretary which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency. An initial application filed later than thirty days after the announcement date of the major disaster shall be accepted as timely by the State agency if the applicant had good cause for the late filing, but no further shall an initial application be accepted by the State agency if it is filed after the expiration of the Disaster Assistance Period. If the 30th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the thirty-day time limit shall be extended to the next business day.

(b) Weekly applications. Applications for DUA for weeks of unemployment shall be filed with respect to the individual's applicable State at the times and in the manner as claims for regular compensation are filed under the applicable State law, and on forms prescribed by the Secretary which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency.

(c) Filing in person. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (d) of this section, applications for DUA, including initial applications, shall be filed in person.

(2) Whenever an individual has good cause for the late filing of an application for DUA in person, the application shall be filed at such time, in such place, and in such a manner as directed by the State agency and in accordance with this Part and procedures prescribed by the Secretary.

(d) IRRD. The "Interstate Benefit Payment Filing" shall apply, where appropriate, to an individual filing applications for DUA.

(e) Wage combining. The "Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages" (Part 616 of this chapter) shall apply, where appropriate, to an individual filing applications for DUA: Provided, That the "Payroll Period" shall be the applicable State for the individual as prescribed in § 625.12.

(f) Procedural requirements. (1) The procedures for reporting and filing applications for DUA shall be consistent with this Part, and with the Secretary's "Employment Security Administration Reporting, Job Finding and Employment Services" (Employment Security Manual, Part V, sections 5000 et seq.) to the extent as such standard is not inconsistent with this Part.

(2) The provisions of the applicable State law which apply hereunder to applications for and the payment of DUA shall be amended, as appropriate, with the requirements of Title III of the Social Security Act and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act which are pertinent in the case of regular compensation, including but not limited to those standards and requirements specifically referred to in the provisions of this Part.

§ 625.9 Determinations of entitlement; notices to individual.

(a) Determination of initial application. (1) The State agency shall, on the basis of the information contained in an initial application for DUA, determine whether the individual is eligible, and if the individual is found to be eligible, the weekly amount of DUA payable to the individual and the period during which DUA is payable.

(d) Determination of weekly applications. The State agency shall promptly, upon the filing of an application for a payment of DUA with respect to a week of unemployment, determine whether the individual is entitled to a payment of DUA with respect to that week, and, if entitled, the amount of DUA to which the individual is entitled.

(e) Redetermination. The provisions of the applicable State law concerning the right to request, or authority to undertake, reconsideration of a determination pertaining to regular compensation under the applicable State law, shall apply to determinations pertaining to DUA.

(f) Notice to individual. The State agency shall give notice of its determination of a claim for DUA to the individual, by the most expeditious method, of any determination or redetermination of an initial application, and also any determination of an application for DUA with respect to a week of unemployment which denies DUA or reduces the weekly amount initially determined to be payable, and of any redetermination of an application for DUA with respect to a week of unemployment.

§ 625.10 Appeal and review.

(a) States of the United States. (1) Any determination or redetermination made pursuant to § 623.9, by a State agency other than the State agency of the Virgin Islands, the Canal Zone, the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, may be appealed by the applicant, in accordance with the applicable State law to the first-stage administrative appellate authority in the same manner and to the same extent as a determination or redetermination of a right to regular compensation may be appealed under the applicable State law.

(2) Notice of the decision on appeal, and the reasons therefor, shall be given to the individual by delivering the notice to the individual personally or by mailing it to the individual's last known address, whichever is most expeditious. The notice of decision shall contain information as to the individual's right to review of the decision by the appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, and the manner of obtaining such review, including the address of the Regional Administrator. Notice of the decision on appeal shall be given also to the State agency and to the appropriate Regional Administrator.

(b) Virgin Islands: (1) In the case of an appeal by an individual from a determination or redetermination by the State agency of the Virgin Islands, the individual shall be entitled to a hearing and decision in accordance with the procedures set forth in §§ 609.34–609.45 of this chapter by a referee appointed by the Secretary.

(2) Notice of the referee's decision, and the reasons therefor, shall be given to the individual by delivering the notice to the individual personally or by mailing it to the individual's last known address, whichever is most expeditious. The notice of decision shall contain information as to the individual's right to review of the decision by the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, for Region II (New York), and the manner of obtaining such review, including the address of the Regional Administrator. Notice of the decision on appeal shall be given also to the State agency and to the Regional Administrator.

(c) Canal Zone, Guam, American Samoa, and Trust Territory. (1) In the case of an appeal by an individual from a determination or redetermination by the State agency of the Canal Zone, Territory of Guam, American Samoa, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the individual shall be entitled to a hearing and decision in accordance with the procedures set forth in §§ 609.34–609.45 of this chapter by a referee appointed by the Secretary.

(2) Notice of the referee's decision, and the reasons therefor, shall be given to the individual by delivering the notice to the individual personally or by mailing it to the individual's last known address, whichever is most expeditious. The notice of decision shall contain information as to the individual's right to review of the decision by the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, for Region IX (San Francisco), and the manner of obtaining such review, including the address of the Regional Administrator. Notice of the decision on appeal shall be given also to the State agency and to the Regional Administrator.

(d) Review by Regional Administrator. (1) The appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, upon request for review by an applicant or a State agency shall, upon the Regional Administrator's own motion, review a decision on appeal issued pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section.

(2) Any request for review by an applicant or a State agency shall be filed within 15 days after notice of the decision on appeal was delivered or mailed to the individual.

(3) A request for review by an individual may be filed directly with the appropriate Regional Administrator. A request for review by a State agency shall be filed with the appropriate Regional Administrator. A copy shall be served on the individual by delivery to the individual personally or by mail to the individual's last known address. When a Regional Administrator is undertakes, the Regional Administrator shall notify the individual of the Regional Administrator's own motion, notice thereof shall be served promptly on the individual and the State agency. Whenever review by a Regional Administrator is undertaken on the motion of the Regional Administrator, notice thereof shall be served promptly on the Regional Administrator's entire record of the case.

Where service on a party is required by this paragraph, adequate proof of service shall be furnished for the record before the Regional Administrator, and be a condition of undertaking review pursuant to this paragraph.

(4) The decision of the Regional Administrator on review shall be rendered promptly, and not later than 15 days after receipt of the record from the State's appellate authority.

(5) Notice of the Regional Administrator's decision shall be mailed promptly to the last known address of the individual, to the State agency of the Regional Administrator, the Regional Administrator, Unemployment Insurance Service. The decision of the Regional Administrator shall be the final decision under this Part, and this Part is further review by the Assistant Secretary as provided in paragraph (e) of this section.

(e) Further review by Assistant Secretary. (1) The Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training on his own motion may review any decision by a Regional Administrator issued pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section.

(2) Notice of a motion for review by the Assistant Secretary shall be given to the applicant, the State agency of the applicable State, the appropriate Regional Administrator, and the Administrator, Unemployment Insurance Service.

(3) When the Regional Administrator and the State agency are notified of the Assistant Secretary's motion for review, they shall forward all records in the case to the Assistant Secretary.

(4) Review by the Assistant Secretary shall be solely on the record on the case, any other written contentions or evidence requested by the Assistant Secretary, and any further evidence or arguments offered by the individual, the State agency, the Regional Administrator, or the Administrator, Unemployment Insurance Service, which are mailed to the Assistant Secretary within 15 days after mailing the notice of motion for review.

(5) Upon review of a case under this paragraph, the Assistant Secretary may affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Regional Administrator, and may remand the case for further proceedings and decision in accordance with the Assistant Secretary's decision.

(6) The decision of the Assistant Secretary shall be final and conclusive, and binding on all interested parties, and shall be precedent applicable throughout the States.

(7) Procedural requirements. (1) Decisions on appeals from determinations or redeterminations by the State agency shall be made in accordance with the Secretary's "Standard for Appeals Promptness-Unemployment Compensation" in Part 650 of this chapter.

(3) The provisions on right of appeal and opportunity for hearing and review with respect to applications for DUA shall be consistent with this Part and with sections 303(a)(1) and 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 303 (a)(1) and 303(a)(3).

(4) Any petition or other matter required to be filed within a time limit under this section shall be deemed to have been timely filed if it is delivered to an appropriate office, or at the time of the postmark if it is mailed via the United States Postal Service to an appropriate office.

(4) Any limited time period specified in this section ends on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday in the major disaster area, the time period shall be extended to the next business day.

§ 625.11 Provisions of State law applicable.

The terms and conditions of the State law of the applicable State for an individual, which apply to claims for, and the payment of, regular compensation, shall apply to applications for, and the payment of, DUA to each such individual, only as specifically set forth in the provisions of this part.

§ 625.12 The applicable State for an individual.

(a) Applicable State. The applicable State for an individual shall be that State in which the individual's unemployment is the result of a major disaster.

(b) Limitation. DUA is payable to an individual only by an applicable State as determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section;
(1) Only pursuant to an Agreement entered into pursuant to the Act and this part, and with respect to weeks in which the Agreement has expired;
(2) Only with respect to weeks of unemployment that begin during a Disaster Assistance Period.

§ 625.13 Restrictions on entitlement—disqualification.

(a) Income reductions. The amount of DUA payable to an individual for a week of unemployment, as computed pursuant to § 625.6, shall be reduced by the amount of any of the following that an individual has received for the week or would receive for the week if the individual filed a claim or application therefor and took all procedural steps necessary under the appropriate law, contract, or policy to receive such payment:
(1) Compensation as defined in § 625.2(d), except Special Unemployment Assistance;
(2) Any benefit or insurance proceed from any source for loss of wages due to illness or disability;
(3) A supplemental unemployment benefit pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement;
(4) Private income protection insurance;
(5) Any workers' compensation by virtue of the death of the head of the household as the result of the major disaster in the major disaster area, prorated by weeks, if the individual has become the head of the household and is seeking suitable work because the head of the household died as the result of the major disaster in the major disaster area; and
(6) The prorated amount of a retirement pension or annuity under a public or private retirement plan or system, prorated, where necessary, by weeks, but only if, and to the extent that, such amount would be deducted from regular compensation payable under the applicable State law in a position suitable to the individual.

(b) Disqualification. An individual shall not be entitled to DUA for any week after the week in which the individual is reemployed in a suitable position.

(c) An individual who refuses without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of reemployment in a position suitable to the individual, or to investigate or accept a referral to a position which is suitable to- and available to the individual, shall not be entitled to DUA with respect to the week in which such refusal occurs or in any subsequent week in the Disaster Assistance Period. For the purposes of this paragraph, a position shall not be deemed to be suitable for an individual if the circumstances present any unusual risk to the health, safety, or morals of the individual. If it is impracticable for the individual to accept the position, or if acceptance of the position would, as to the individual, be inconsistent with any labor standard in section 3304(a)(5) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, 26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(5), the provisions of the applicable State law.

§ 625.14 Overpayments; disqualification for fraud.

(a) Finding and repayment. If the State agency of the applicable State finds that an individual has received a payment of DUA to which the individual was not entitled, and this part, whether or not the payment was due to the individual's fault or misrepresentation, the individual shall be liable to repay to the applicable State the total sum of the payment to which the individual was not entitled.

(b) Recovery by offset. (1) The State agency shall recover, insofar as is possible, the amount of any overpayment which is not repaid by the individual, by deductions from any DUA payable to the individual under the Act and this part, or from any compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any other Federal law payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency, subject to the limitation in § 615.15 of this chapter in regard to recovery from any Special Unemployment Assistance payable to the individual.

(2) A State agency shall also recover, insofar as is possible, the amount of any overpayment of DUA made to the individual by another State, by deductions from any DUA payable to the State agency to the other State under the Act and this part, or from any compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any assistance or allowance payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency, subject to the limitation in § 615.13(a)(2)(d) of this chapter in regard to recovery from any Special Unemployment Assistance payable to the individual.

(c) Debts due the United States. DUA payable to an individual shall be applied by the State agency for the recovery by offset of any debt due to the United States from the individual, but shall not be applied or used by the State agency in any manner for the payment of any debt of the individual to any State or any other entity or person.

(d) Recovered overpayments. Overpayments recovered from an individual shall be credited or returned, as the case may be, to the appropriate account of the United States.

(e) Application of State law. Any provision of State law authorizing waiver of recovery of overpayments of compensation shall not be applicable.

(1) Final decision. Recovery of any overpayment of DUA shall not be enforced by the State agency until the determination establishing the overpayment has become final and no appeal of the determination is taken from the determination, until the decision after opportunity for a fair hearing has become final.

(2) The provisions of § 625.10 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(3) Procedure requirements. (1) The provisions of paragraphs (e), (d), and (f) of § 625.8 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(h) Fraud detection and prevention. Provisions in the procedures of each State with respect to detection and prevention of fraudulent overpayments of DUA shall be, as a minimum, consistent with the procedures adopted by the State with respect to regular compensation and consistent with the Secretary's "Standard for Fraud and Overpayment Detection" (Employment Security Manual, Part V, sections 7510 et seq.).

(i) Disqualification for fraud. Any individual who, with respect to a major disaster, makes or causes another to make a false statement or misrepresentation of a material fact, knowing it to be false, or knowingly fails or causes another to fail to disclose a material fact, in order to obtain the individual or any other person a payment of DUA to which the individual or any other person is not entitled, shall be disqualified as follows:

(1) If the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure pertains to an initial application for DUA—

(a) The individual making the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure shall be disqualified from the receipt of any DUA with respect to that major disaster; and

(b) If the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure was made on behalf of another individual, and was known to such other individual to be a false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure, such other individual shall be disqualified from the receipt of any DUA with respect to that major disaster; and

(2) If the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure pertains to a week for which application for a payment of DUA is made—

(a) The individual making the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure shall be disqualified from the receipt of DUA for that week and the first two compensable weeks in the Disaster Assistance Period that immediately follow that week, with respect to which the individual is otherwise entitled to a payment of DUA; and

shall be disqualified from the receipt of DUA for that week and the first two compensable weeks in the Disaster Assistance Period that immediately follow that week, with respect to which the individual is otherwise entitled to a payment of DUA.

(b) Disclosure of information. Information in records made and maintained by a State agency in administering the Act shall be kept confidential, and information in such records may be disclosed only in the same manner and to the same extent as information with respect to temporary compensation and the entitlement of individuals thereto may be disclosed under the applicable State law, and consistently with section 308(a)(1)
of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503
(a)(1). This provision on the con-

§ 625.15 Inviolable rights to DUA.

Except as specifically provided in this part, the right of individuals to DUA shall be protected in the same manner and to the same extent as the rights of persons to regular unemployment compensation are protected under the applicable State law. Such measures shall include protection of applicants for DUA from waiver, release, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, levy, execution, attachment, and garnishment, of their rights to DUA. In the same manner and to the same extent, individuals shall be protected from discrimination and obstruction in regard to seeking, applying for, and receiving any right to DUA.

§ 625.16 Recordkeeping; disclosure of information.

(a) Recordkeeping. Each State agency will make and maintain records pertaining to the administration of the Act as the Secretary requires, and will make all such records available for inspection, examination, and audit by such Federal officials or employees as the Secretary may designate or as may be required by law.

§ 625.18 Public access to Agreements.

The State agency of a State will make available to any individual or organization a true copy of the Agreement with the State for inspection and copying.
Copies of an Agreement may be furnished on request to any individual or organization upon payment of the same charges, if any, as apply to the furnishing of copies of other records of the State agency.

§ 625.19 Information, reports and studies.

(a) Routine responses. State agencies shall furnish to the Secretary such information and reports and make such studies as the Secretary decides are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the Act and this part.

(b) Final Report. In addition to such other reports as may be required by the Secretary, within 60 days after all payments of Disaster Unemployment Assistance as the result of a major disaster in the State have been made, the State agency shall submit a final report to the Secretary. A final report shall contain a narrative summary, a chronological list of significant events, pertinent statistics about the Disaster Unemployment Assistance provided to disaster victims, brief statements of major problems encountered, discussion of lessons learned, and suggestions for improvement of the program during future major disasters.

§ 625.20 Savings clause.

The regulations in this part do not apply to applications, determinations, hearings, or other administrative or judicial proceedings, with respect to any major disaster declared prior to October 16, 1977, and such applications, determinations, hearings, or other administrative or judicial proceedings shall remain subject to the Act and the regulations in this part issued thereunder which were in effect prior to that date.
